Subject: R.A. 32 and 35 of 30-31 between Javali Family Bank and D.C., Shimoga: your letter on the subject in reply to mine of 15-8-31, has, I very much regret, been mislaid.

Sir,

Re the above, I am informed by the Office (of the High Court) that where there are cross appeals in respect of the same judgment, it is usual to call upon each party to deposit the full amount of the estimated amount of printing charges, to provide for the contingency of one of the parties failing to pay, and that where both parties pay they are to share the printing charges of common papers equally, and that the Office has no objection to receive from me (as counsel for Govt.) half the charges in the first instance. I therefore request that you will be pleased to arrange for a remittance of Rs. 75 in the first instance, at a very
